

My name is Chris Diller. I am an IRC teacher in the High School at Hiawatha. I earned my special education degree from Emporia State University in 1999. I have a degree in elementary education as well. I am currently working on my masters in Adaptive Special Education, also from ESU.

I have been teaching in special education for 9 years. This is my 2nd year in the Brown County Interlocal. Before teaching at Hiawatha, I was in the Rose Hill school district for 5 years, and the Andover High school district 2 years. I love teaching in the special education programs, and look forward to a long career.

Along with my duties as a teacher, I am also the head varsity football coach and the head varsity wrestling coach. I spend most of my free time reading, coaching or playing with my kids.

I have been married for 8 years to wife Heidi, who is a Hiawatha native. She teaches music at the elementary school in Hiawatha. We have 3 children, 2 girls and 1 boy: Brenna 5, Sutton 2, Tagen 3 months. We have enjoyed moving back to and living in Hiawatha. Family is very important to us, and there are many relatives in and around this area.
