

Robin L. Gilbert graduated from Hiawatha High School in 1993. She then attended Highland Community College on a track scholarship. After graduating from HCC, she transferred to Kansas State University and received her Bachelor's of Science in 1997. In 1999, she graduated from University of Nebraska-Kearney with a Master's degree in Communication Sciences and Disorders. She worked for Morrison Speech-Language Clinic, after completing her internships at Hiawatha Elementary School and Stormont Vail Hospital until 2001. At that time, she accepted a position as SLP in the Horton District for the Brown County Kansas Special Education Interlocal. She currently lives in rural Robinson with her husband, Craig, who works at Ag Partners in Hiawatha. They have two children, Madison, who is 6 and Carson, who is 4.
