

Amy Larson is the Business Manager/Board Clerk at Brown County Special Education. In August 2008, she completed her second year with the Interlocal and looks forward to many more years. Amy is a 1993 graduate of Hiawatha High School and a 1997 graduate of Emporia State University with a Bachelor of Science in Finance. Amy handles payroll, accounts payable, and the budget. She prepares board packets and records minutes at BCK-SEI board meetings. She is also involved in the FTE state audit and financial audit. She has several other responsibilities that keep her days very busy at Brown County Special Education. Before joining BCK-SEI, Amy had nine years' experience in payroll, accounts payable and other financial aspects of business.

From 2001 through 2005, Amy was a member of the Junior League of Topeka, volunteering many hours to various causes such as Christmas Bureau, Florence Crittenton Home, The Villages, and others. She chaired the Community Action Program committee of the Junior League during the 2004-2005 year. She also was a member of the Project Topeka committee through Capitol Federal Savings, an annual food drive during the month of February. She moved back to Hiawatha in 2005 and is very close to her parents and family members.

Amy enjoys reading, cross-stitching, listening to music, watching K-State sports, and walking outside. She is active in her church and has been a member of the UMC Praise Ringers bell choir for several years now. She also enjoys being an aunt to her nine nieces and nephews ranging in ages from 3 to 24! Her youngest niece and nephew, Emma and Dylan, enjoy it when she plays with them at their farm.

